Biography:

Mr. Landman joined the firm in 2021 as an associate. He focuses his practice in the areas of commercial litigation, corporate law, labor and employment law, and government affairs.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Landman served as an associate with a leading education law firm in Bergen County where he gained experience handling various education, public sector labor, and business law matters. Mr. Landman also served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable Mara Zazzali-Hogan, J.S.C. of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Monmouth Vicinage. During his clerkship, Mr. Landman managed the Complex Business Litigation docket and assisted Judge Zazzali-Hogan in all aspects of civil trial practice.

Mr. Landman is a graduate of Seton Hall Law School in Newark, where he served as an Evening Senator in the Student Bar Association and earned an Excellence Award in Constitutional Law while working for his local state legislators and various law firms throughout the state.

Today, Mr. Landman is committed to working closely with his clients and providing sound legal counsel to ensure clients are provided the tools necessary to make informed decisions and achieve favorable results.
